AMENDMENTS

1. (i) These rules may be called the Agricultural Income-tax (Amendment) Rules, 1979.

(ii) They shall come into force at once.

2. In the Agricultural Income-tax Rules, 1951,—

(i) for rule 1B, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

"1B. Appellate Tribunal.—Of the members of the Appellate Tribunal (other than its Chairman) appointed under section 16,—

(i) as nearly as possible, one half shall be from officers of the Agricultural Income-tax and Sales-tax Department of the Government not below the rank of Deputy Commissioner; and

(ii) the others shall be Chartered Accountants as defined in the Chartered Accountants' Act, 1949, or Class I Officers of the Indian Audit and Accounts Service having not less than three years service as such in revenue audit, or officers not below the rank of Inspecting/Appellate Assistant Commissioner of Income-tax of the Indian Revenue Service";

(ii) after rule 15, the following rule shall be in erted, namely:—

"16. (1) When any accounts, registers, records or other documents of an assessee or any other person seized by any officer empowered under section 66 have to be returned to the assessee or any other person, such return may be made after taking such copies or extracts therefrom, as may be considered necessary. By order of the Governor,

C. P. Nair,

Explanatory Note

(This does not form part of the amendment or rule, but is intended to indicate the general purport).

Under sub-section (1) of section 16 of the Agricultural Income-tax Act, 1950 (Act 22 of 1950) as amended by Agricultural Income-tax Act (Amendment) Act, 1976 (13 of 1976), the Appellate Tribunal shall consist of a Chairman and as many other members as the Government may think fit. Again, under section 66 as amended by the said amendment Act, power to order production of accounts and powers of entry, inspection, etc. have been conferred on officers not below the rank of Agricultural Income-tax Officer. Government therefore consider that the rules relating to the ratio and the qualification of the Members of the Tribunal have to be modified and that the procedure for inspection of accounts, registers and documents and for return of the same after seizure have to be prescribed by suitably amending the Agricultural Income tax Rules, 1951. The amendment is intended to achieve the above object.
